SUMMARY

Every year Californians provide generous support to charities by giving directly to charities or through professional fundraisers hired by charities. Professional fundraisers that solicit donations in California are subject to the Attorney General's registration and reporting requirements.

One type of professional fundraiser is a commercial fundraiser, which refer generally to a person or an entity that contracts with a charity to solicit donations for a fee. The commercial fundraiser charges either a flat fee or a fee that is a percentage of the donations collected. By law, commercial fundraisers operating in California are required to register with the Attorney General's Registry of Charitable Trusts and file a Notice of Intent before soliciting donations. For each solicitation campaign conducted, commercial fundraisers are then required to file annual financial disclosure report that sets forth total revenue and expenses incurred.

Another type of professional fundraiser is a commercial coventurer, which is defined as any person, who for profit, represents to the public that the purchase or use of any goods, services, entertainment, or any other thing of value will benefit a charitable organization or will be used for a charitable purpose.

This Summary Report is prepared from self-reported information contained in the annual financial disclosure reports filed by commercial fundraisers and commercial coventurers for the calendar year 2017, and includes statistics for donations of both cash and used personal property (such as clothing and vehicles). The Summary Report includes information only from complete financial reports that were received before November 27, 2018.

Tables 1 and 2 provide information from reports submitted by commercial fundraisers that solicit donations via direct mail, telemarketing, auctions, and entertainment events. Tables 3, 4, and 5 provide information from reports submitted for thrift store operations and vehicle donation programs. Table 6 provides information from reports submitted by commercial coventurers.

Comparison Figures for the Past Four Years of Reporting*

The table below shows the amount of revenue raised in the past four years by professional fundraisers, as well as the percentage of the revenue that is distributed to charitable organizations. For the past four years the figures show that a solicitation campaign conducted by a professional fundraiser has seen an increase in the percentage of revenue to charities from 68.17 to 72.58 percent. The total revenue in general fundraising has also risen in the past four years by approximately 26.6 percent. In contrast, the total amount of revenue raised by commercial coventurers has risen by approximately 14 percent in the past four years, but the percentage of the revenue distributed to charities has decreased from approximately 18.48 to 11.86 percent.

The table below also reflects the number of commercial fundraisers and commercial coventurers that have registered and filed financial reports with the Registry of Charitable Trusts. The number of registered commercial fundraisers that filed financial reports has gradually declined for the past four years. The number of commercial coventurers that have registered and filed financial reports has risen.

Some of the Worst Performers Based On a Four-Year Cumulative Review

The table below shows the amount of revenue raised in the past four years by the worst performing professional fundraisers based on a four-year cumulative review of prior reports. The table also shows that some of the charities lost more money than was raised, or received less than ten percent of the total funds donated. It is important to note that most of the charities registered with the Attorney General's Registry of Charitable Trusts do not use professional fundraisers to raise funds.

Overview of Thrift Store Operations and Vehicle Donation Programs

Thrift stores sell “salvageable personal property” to raise charitable funds. Thrift stores may be operated directly by a charity or through a for-profit vendor. For-profit vendors are defined as commercial fundraisers if they (1) receive a management fee or commission from a charity for operating the thrift store, or (2) purchase a majority of the goods sold from charities or social welfare organizations at negotiated prices. (Government Code, § 12599.)

Charities that operate their own thrift stores incur overhead and other expenses associated with the operation of a retail store. After those expenses are paid, the earnings are used to support charitable programs and other operational expenses.

Vehicle donation programs have become more popular over the past several years. These programs are administered either directly by charities, or through a commercial fundraiser. The process of donating a vehicle usually begins when a donor contacts a charity or commercial fundraiser in response to a solicitation campaign. In the initial phone conversation, the donor will be asked questions about the vehicle. Generally, the vehicle will be accepted unless the cost of towing the vehicle exceeds its value. Donors are responsible for notifying the Department of Motor Vehicles of the transfer of registration. Failure to transfer registration has subjected many donors to subsequent penalties and expenses incurred after donation, most often as a result of parking violations. After receiving the donated vehicle, it is sold and the proceeds are divided between the commercial fundraiser and the charity. Because all costs associated with advertising, towing, storing, and selling the vehicle are deducted from the sale proceeds before any distribution to charity, charities usually only receive a marginal amount from the car’s sales proceeds.

Description and Summary of Information in Tables 3, 4 and 5

Table 3: Thrift Store Operations – Goods Purchased from Charity: This table lists, in alphabetical order, each charitable organization that solicited donations of used clothing and merchandise (“salvageable personal property”) and sold the property to a for-profit thrift store operator. The name of the for-profit store operator is also listed. (14 completed reports)

Table 4: Thrift Store Operations – Management/Fee Commission: This table lists, in alphabetical order, each charitable organization that solicited donations of used clothing and merchandise and paid a management fee or commission to a for-profit thrift store operator. The name of the for-profit thrift store operator is also listed. (2 completed reports)

Total revenue increased from 2016 by approximately $1 million, and the percent to charity slightly increased by 1.5%.
- For-profit thrift store operators that were paid a fee or commission by charities reported total revenue of approximately $1.37 million for the 2017 reporting period, with approximately $108,000, or 7.90% paid to charities. The percentage to charity decreased from the 2016 figure of 7.99%.
- Total revenue for vehicle donations was approximately $88.3 million, with charities receiving approximately $29.9 million, or 33.9% of this amount. The total revenue increased by approximately $16 million from 2016, while the percent to charity decreased by approximately 10%.

Description and Summary of Information in Table 6

- Information was obtained from 52 completed financial reports.
- Commercial coventurer campaigns reported total revenue of approximately $227.7 million for the 2017 reporting period, an increase of approximately $32.4 million over the amount reported in 2016.
- Charities received approximately $27 million, an increase of approximately $1.4 million over the amount reported in 2016.

The information contained in the Attorney General's summary of charitable solicitation campaigns conducted by commercial fundraisers and commercial coventurers is derived from unaudited reports filed by fundraisers. The filed reports should be consulted for more complete information regarding each solicitation campaign.

This Summary Report and the annual financial reports filed by commercial fundraisers for each solicitation campaign are available on the Attorney General's website at <http://oag.ca.gov/charities>.

For more information on donating to charity, see our Donation Tips <https://oag.ca.gov/donations>.

This table lists, in alphabetical order, each charitable organization that contracted with a commercial fundraiser to conduct one or more solicitation campaigns on its behalf. For each campaign, the table lists the name of the charity, name of the commercial fundraiser used, total revenue raised by the campaign, total revenue to charity, and percentage of revenue that the charity received.

Note: Negative amounts in the “To Charity” column indicate the campaign raised less than the commercial fundraiser fee guaranteed in the contract between the charity and the fundraiser.

Thrift Store Operations

Cost of Goods Purchased from Charity

For-profit thrift stores purchase a majority of goods sold in their thrift stores from charities or social welfare organizations at negotiated prices. For-profit thrift stores are listed in this Table. The Table reports the amount they raised in sales and the amount that was paid to charity for the salvageable goods sold.

Note: Negative amounts in the “To Charity” column indicate the campaign raised less than the commercial fundraiser fee guaranteed in the contract between the charity and the fundraiser.

This table lists, in alphabetical order, each charitable organization that contracted with a commercial fundraiser to solicit donated vehicles on the charity's behalf. For each campaign, the table lists the name of the charity, name of the commercial fundraiser, total revenue raised from the campaign, total revenue to charity, and percentage of revenue that the charity received.

Note: Negative amounts in the "To Charity" column indicate the campaign raised less than the commercial fundraiser fee guaranteed in the contract between the charity and the fundraiser.
