SUMMARY

Every year Californians provide generous support to charities by giving directly to charities or through their professional fundraisers. Professional fundraisers that solicit donations in California are subject to the Attorney General's regulatory oversight. Professional fundraisers are required to register and report to the Attorney General's Registry of Charitable Trusts.

One type of professional fundraiser is a commercial fundraiser, which is a person or an entity hired by a charity to solicit money or property on the charity's behalf. The commercial fundraiser may solicit donations via direct mail, through the website, by door-to-door, telemarketing, auctions, entertainment events and through the sale of used personal property such as clothing, household items and vehicles. Commercial fundraisers may be paid either a flat fee or a percentage of the donations collected in the charity's name. Commercial fundraisers operating in California are required to register with the Attorney General's Registry of Charitable Trusts and file a Notice of Intent before soliciting donations. For each solicitation campaign conducted, commercial fundraisers must file an annual financial report that discloses the total revenue raised, expenses incurred, and net amount paid to the charity that retained the fundraiser. For more information on the registration and reporting requirements of professional fundraisers, please visit our website at oag.ca.gov/charities/pf.

This Summary Report is based on the annual financial reports filed by commercial fundraisers for their solicitation campaigns conducted in calendar year 2019. The Summary Report is based solely on the complete financial reports that were received before November 17, 2020.

The summary also covers reports submitted by commercial fundraiser that raise funds through the operation of Thrift stores. Thrift stores may be operated directly by a charity or through a for-profit vendor. For-profit vendors are defined as commercial fundraisers if they (1) receive a management fee or commission from a charity for operating the thrift store, or (2) purchase a majority of the goods sold from charities or social welfare organizations at negotiated prices. (Government Code, § 12599.) Some thrift stores are operated by commercial fundraisers who pay a flat fee to the charity and the sale revenues are retained by the commercial fundraisers. Whereas other commercial fundraisers share a percentage of the sales revenue with the charity.

The summary also covers reports submitted by commercial fundraisers who operate vehicle donation programs which raise money by soliciting car donations. These programs are administered either directly by charities, or through a commercial fundraiser. The process of donating a vehicle usually begins when a donor contacts a charity or commercial fundraiser in response to a solicitation campaign. In the initial conversation, the donor will be asked questions about the vehicle. Generally, the vehicle will be accepted unless the cost of towing the vehicle exceeds its value. The donated vehicle is sold and the proceeds are divided between the commercial fundraiser and the charity. Because all costs associated with advertising, towing, storing, and selling the vehicle are deducted from the sale proceeds before any distribution to charity, the charities usually only receive a marginal amount from the sales proceeds. Please note that donors are responsible for notifying the Department of Motor Vehicles of the vehicle's transfer of registration and ownership. Failure to transfer registration has subjected many vehicle donors to subsequent expenses incurred after donation, most often as a result of parking violations.

Lastly, the summary includes information obtained from reports filed by commercial coventurers, which is any person or entity, who for profit, represents to the public that the purchase or use of any products, services, entertainment, or anything of value will benefit a charitable organization or will be used for a charitable purpose.

Tables 1 and 2 provide information from reports submitted by commercial fundraisers that solicit donations via direct mail, telemarketing, auctions, and entertainment events. Tables 3, 4, and 5 provide information from reports submitted for thrift store operations and vehicle donation programs. Table 6 provides information from reports submitted by commercial coventurers.

The Attorney General's Office Enforcement Actions in 2018-2020

From November of 2018 to October of 2020, the Attorney General's Registry of Charitable Trusts (Registry) issued 276 Delinquency letters to commercial fundraisers that had not timely filed financial reports during the years 2014 – 2019. The delinquency letters resulted in 652 financial reports being filed. Submissions filed in response to the delinquency letters have resulted in more accurate reporting for the 2019 report.

A few commercial fundraisers failed to comply with the delinquency notices; thus, administrative actions were taken against them. Charities cannot enter into agreements with the below-listed organizations to raise funds in California until the commercial fundraisers resolve the violations that led to the enforcement actions filed by the Registry. The fundraisers that were refused registration, suspended, or issued cease and desist orders, based on the failure to file annual reports, are listed below:

Some of the Worst Performers Based On a Five-Year Cumulative Review

Charities should consider whether to hire fundraisers that continuously fail to perform over the years. Likewise, donors and grant makers may want to exercise caution in supporting charities that hire fundraisers with poor track records. The table below shows the worst performing professional fundraisers based on a five-year cumulative review of prior reports submitted to the Registry. As mentioned above, the Summary Report is based solely on the financial data requested by the annual forms. The annual forms do not inquire about other quantifiable or intangible benefits that ongoing solicitation campaigns may bring, such as new and recurring donors. The table also shows that some charities lost more money than was raised, or received less than three percent of the total funds donated. It is important to note that most of the charities registered with the Attorney General’s Registry of Charitable Trusts do not use professional fundraisers to raise funds.

This Summary Report and the annual financial reports filed by commercial fundraisers for each solicitation campaign are available on the Attorney General’s website at <https://oag.ca.gov/charities>. The Attorney General has also published the Guide for Charities which contains information on hiring fundraisers.

The Attorney General has also provided useful donor tips at <https://oag.ca.gov/donations>.

TABLE 1

This table lists, in alphabetical order, each charitable organization that contracted with a commercial fundraiser to conduct one or more solicitation campaigns on its behalf. For each campaign, the table lists the name of the charity, name of the commercial fundraiser used, total revenue raised by the campaign, total revenue to charity, and percentage of revenue that the charity received.

Note: Negative amounts in the “To Charity” column indicate the campaign raised less than the commercial fundraiser fee guaranteed in the contract between the charity and the fundraiser.
