Dear [CUSTOMER NAME]:

We value our relationship with you and we respect the privacy of your information, which is why, as a precautionary measure, we are writing to let you know about a data security incident that may involve your personal information.

On June 27, 2013, a laptop that may have contained your personal information was stolen from a locked vehicle in a smash-and-grab type of theft. The theft involved credit cards, a wallet and other personal property from the vehicle. The law enforcement investigation is ongoing, but the laptop has not been recovered. Though it is possible that your name, address, bank account information, and/or social security number may have been or may be accessed, at this time we have no reason to believe that the data on the laptop has been accessed.

Following discovery of the theft, we immediately set out to determine what information might be on the laptop so that we could alert any customer whose information could have been on the stolen laptop. While we have fully cooperated with law enforcement in their investigation of the theft and will continue to do so, our cooperation with law enforcement has not caused any delay in notifying you about the incident. The removal of any laptop containing the personal information of our customers was against our company's data security policy and the involved employee has been reprimanded. We have no reason to believe that this type of incident would occur in the future.

We value your privacy and deeply regret that this incident occurred. We are continuing to work with law enforcement and investigators to assure that we have taken appropriate steps to identify all affected customers and information. We will notify you if there is any significant development.

You should remain vigilant about the protection of your personal information and review all of your account statements for any suspicious activity. You should also take advantage of your opportunity to obtain a free credit report by visiting:

www.annualcreditreport.com

by calling (877)322-8228 and/or requesting from us an Annual Credit Report Request Form and submitting it to Annual Credit Report Request Service P.O. Box 105281 Atlanta, GA 30348-5281.

You should also report any suspected identity theft. For your additional protection, we suggest that you contact the fraud department at any one of the three credit agencies to inform them that you may be a potential victim of identity theft and request that a "fraud alert" be placed on your credit file. A fraud alert is a consumer statement added to your credit file that warns creditors about possible fraudulent activity within your account and requests that any creditors contact you before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. There is no charge for this service, and it is easy to request. Call any one of the three major credit agencies listed below. As soon as you alert one credit agency it will notify the other two to place fraud alerts on your account as well.
