Object and Summary

Patrons are awarded Match Play Coupons via advertisements in magazines, websites, mailing advertisements, winning a Bureau approved promotion, or winning or signing up for a Bureau approved tournament (GETR-000127). The player-dealer will then have a casino representative sign the coupon verifying that it has been used by the player. The exchanged value, in live casino chips, is then brought back to the player-dealer as reimbursement for the coupon.

All applicable collection fees shall be paid when using a Promo Chip. Promo Chips may not be used to pay collection fees or jackpot fees.

Squares are issued on a first come, first serve basis. One square per person shall be chosen by the player once a player has earned it. Players can qualify to receive more than one square by playing more hours or achieving a qualifying hand multiple times. The numbers on the board shall correspond to the score of the game. Only the last digit of each team's score shall be applied to the numbers on the board. For example: *Player A selected the box that has Denver 0 and San Diego 4. For example, a football or basketball game has a prize given away at the end of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd quarters and final score. In a baseball game, if there is a prize given away at the end of every third inning, the same format shall be used, 3rd and 6th innings and final score.
