Re: Proposition 65 - Service of Motion and Related Papers for Judicial Approval and Submitting 60-Day Notice(s)
Health and Safety Code section 25249, subdivision (f)(5)

Dear Proposition 65 Enforcer:

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic and the efforts to facilitate telecommuting among our staff, we are writing to request that you serve all papers for Proposition 65 motions to approve consent judgments on our office as follows:

Please send an electronic version of the motion and related papers to Prop65.Motions@doj.ca.gov. If for any reason you are unable to email electronic copies, please contact Ms. Gerken via email at: trish.gerken@doj.ca.gov to discuss your particular case.

Electronic submissions (via online upload of motions and related papers) will be used for the purposes of calculating the 45-day time period prior to the hearing, and you will receive an emailed response that your motion papers have been received.

In addition, 60-day notices can be submitted online by visiting our website at <https://oag.ca.gov/prop65>. Click on "File a 60-Day Notice" and follow the prompts. Paper copies mailed to our office will no longer be manually uploaded to the website. The date of electronic submission (via online upload) will be used for the purpose of calculating the 60-day notice period. If for any reason you are unable to upload the 60-day notice online, please contact Ms. Gerken via email at trish.gerken@doj.ca.gov to discuss your particular case.

These procedures will remain in effect until further written notice from our office.
Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Laura J. Zuckerman", with a horizontal line extending to the right.

LAURA J. ZUCKERMAN
Deputy Attorney General
