PENAL CODE 679.11 REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE

T Visas provide an immigration benefit for victims of human trafficking who assist law enforcement agencies in the investigation or prosecution of human trafficking offenses, and who would suffer severe harm if removed from the United States. Victims applying for T Visas must seek certifications from law enforcement agencies to establish that they suffered severe forms of trafficking and cooperated with law enforcement agencies. Chapter 749, Statutes of 2016 (AB 2027), enacted Penal Code section 679.11 and mandated that certifying entities annually report to the Legislature the number of Form I-914 Supplement B (T Visa) certifications requested, signed, and denied by the entity.
